Dante Lembi Receives Honor

Dante P. Lembi, versatile faculty member of Jefferson Union high school whose "Indians of Rhythm" have skyrocketed to popular notice, acquired yet another claim to distinction this week with the acceptance of a magazine article for publication in The Italica, leading educational publication on methods and professional procedures of teaching Italian.

Teacher, musician, and now author, Lembi for the past year has filled the position of professor of languages at the Jefferson Union high school.

The letter received from Dr. John Van Horne, editor of The Italica, reads in part: "I am happy to accept your article on 'Interpretive Exercises for the Teaching of Italian.' I expect to publish it during the coming academic year. I think you have an interesting theme, which I hope some day you can follow in a book."

Lembi leaves today to attend sessions at Stanford university for the next few weeks, including a two-weeks' round table conference for modern language teachers. He contemplates writing a series of articles of a professional nature during the summer.

Board Clerk Addresses Graduates

"Mental activity, rightly directed, is the greatest force for good in the world today," Mrs. Stella Jensen, clerk of the Jefferson Union high school board, told one hundred and forty-six graduating students at the annual commencement exercises Wednesday evening.

Officiating at the affair were James Ferguson, principal, Remi Sanders, chairman of the high school board, and Mrs. Jensen.

Other highlights of the evening included brief commencement addresses by various members of the graduating class, and music by the Jefferson Union high school chorus and orchestra.

Stage Hit Of Nation Opens Here

"TOBACCO ROAD," the outstanding stage success of the last twenty years is being presented at the Curran theater, San Francisco, for a limited engagement. Performances began Sunday night. John Barton heads the cast of the company which is on its fourth coast-to-coast tour of the larger cities of the country. This is the only company presenting "Tobacco Road" on tour.

Phenomenal Success

Written by Jack Kirkland and based on the celebrated novel of the same name by Erskine Caldwell, "Tobacco Road" has stirred more discussion than any other stage play of many years. Its phenomenal success is attributed to the fact that it shows a truthful section of life among the penniless share-croppers of the back country of Georgia. It is now in its sixth year on Broadway and its lengthy run has been equalled by only one other play, "Abie's Irish Rose," in the entire history of the American Theater. It has been presented in more than 218 of the larger cities of the country, including Boston, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Seattle, Cincinnati, New Orleans, Atlanta, St. Louis and Washington.

"Tobacco Road" takes a typical family of tenant farmers living in squalor and poverty, ignorant of everything but sex and religion, and shows the humor and drama to be found in the routine of their daily lives.

Jeeter Role

John Barton will have the central role of Jeeter Lester, the middle-aged, shrewd, philosophic, lazy share-cropper. Associate artists include Sara Perry as Ada, the wife, whose only desire is "a stylish dress to be buried in;" Patricia Quinn of the original New York production as Sister Bessie, the middle-aged missionary who induces the 16-year old Dude, played by Norman Budd, to marry her by promising him a new automobile with a horn on it; William Dorme as Lov Bensey, the coal-chute worker, and Eugenia Wilson, as his twelve-year old wife; Sheila Brent as Ellie May of the slit lip; and Lillian Ardell, Dick Lee, Walter Ayers and Alan Jason.

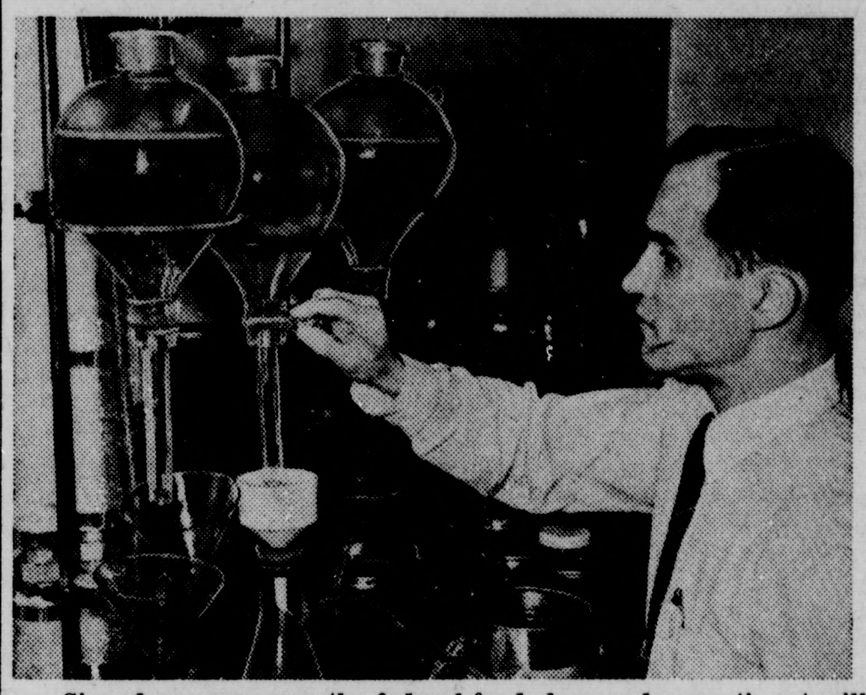
County Day Chairman Reports

H. G. King, local chairman of San Mateo county day at the Exposition, this week submitted his official report of Daly City's participation in the tremendously successful county day on Treasure Island, June 11. It will be remembered that Daly City won outstanding honors at that affair.

King's report reads in part: "As chairman . . . I wish to thank all organizations that worked so hard to make the day a success. I think we have shown the county that Daly City is a city that knows how . . . I want to personally thank Miss Rose; Mrs. Cook of the Native Daughters; E. M. Eliasen of Crocker Lodge No. 454, Masons; George Wheeler of Daly City Rod and Gun Club; Mr. and Mrs. Lesley Hill of American Legion Post and Auxiliary No. 410; Old Glory Post and Auxiliary No. 2044, V. F. W.; James Ferguson, Dante P. Lembi, and the students of Jefferson Union high school."

Thanks was also extended in King's report to city officials and others who attended.

U. S. Tightens Food, Drug Rules



Signed one year ago, the federal food, drug and cosmetic act will become effective Sunday, giving the government control for the first time over cosmetics and therapeutic devices. All cosmetics except toilet soaps and certain hair dyes are affected and all label provisions are tightened. The act applies to interstate shipments only. Photograph shows Dr. Allen F. Hodges of the food and drugs bureau, department of agriculture, testing products for compliance at Washington laboratories.

Ninety-three pupils of local elementary schools were awarded diplomas at the annual commencement exercises of the Jefferson Woodrow Wilson, and Crocker schools held Thursday evening in the Jefferson Union high school auditorium. Carrington, instructor of music in the Sequoia Union high school and was presented under the direction of Miss Muriel Mosconi, music instructor in Jefferson district elementary schools. FULL SPEED AHEAD NOW ON HIGHWAY

Acquire Necessary Property Right Of Way For Extension

"Full speed ahead" is now the definite order for work on the extension of Junipero Serra boulevard. All property right of ways through which Section No. 4 of Joint Highway District No. 10 must pass, has been successfully negotiated and acquired, according to Eugene J. Riordan, right of way agent for the district.

It is expected that Section No. 4 from Cypress Lawn Cemetery to Sneath Lane, San Bruno, will be completed within 12 months, according to the engineer's report. Already, through cooperation of WPA forces, 100 mem are engaged in clearing away brush and undergrowth along the right of way in preparation for heavy road machinery and construction equipment that will soon make its appearance on the job.

Road Crew

Bailey Hipkens, assistant WPA engineer in charge of construction, told Andrew J. Gallagher, president of Joint Highway District No. 10 that satisfactory headway had been made by his road crew and he had expectations of completing preliminary work well in advance of schedule.

Embraced in Section 4, stretching 3 miles from in back of Cypress Lawn Cemetery to a point opposite Tanforan at Sneath Lane in San Bruno, are seven pieces of property through which Section 4 passes.

In a report to San Francisco Supervisor Alfred Roncovieri, vice president and treasurer of the project, Mr. Riordan stated he had been able to secure right of ways at favorable prices to the land-holders.

New Section

With work proceeding satisfactorily on Section 4, President Gallagher is making long-range plans for the continuation of the project.. A new section, designated as Contract No. 5, will extend 4½ miles from the terminus of Section 4 at Sneath Lane to the north boundary of Burlingame. Already, Agent Riordan is making preparations for the acquisition of land for this extension.

President Gallagher announced that his board of directors had named Jeremiah J. Crowley, resident engineer of Section No. 4 on highway construction, as of June 1. The board also approved the appointment of Thomas J. Gallagher and Acy Boren, inspectors of the project.

Jeff Swingsters Continue to Practice

Although school has been dismissed and their leader, Dante P. Lembi, is out of town, the Jefferson Union high school Indians of Rhythm have resolved that the show must go on.

In other words, rehearsals will continue as usual for the popular swingsters, at least for the time being. Last appearance of the troupe was at the installation of officers for Bethel No. 26, O. J. B., Friday evening.

Made public this week was a letter received from the chairman of the twenty-sixth district American Legion hospital in Palo Alto, asking for a performance at the hospital of "the fine show put on at the Exposition."

Crocker PTA Accepts Budget

At the last regular meeting of Crocker P. T. A., held last Tuesday at the Crocker school, Mrs. Agnes Prescott presented her report of the State convention, C. C. P. T., and Mrs. Florence Thorsen reported on the seventeenth district installation luncheon.

A report was also received from Mrs. Otha Kinsey, who accompanied Mrs. Mildred Seiler, president, to the presidents' meeting, and attended the program conference. The program for the year is now being prepared.

The budget for the year w a s read and accepted. Several articles were offered for sale by the Sew and Sew club, and most of them were sold. Mrs. Florence Thorsen, chairman of the life-membership whists, reported that enough money had been made to present two life-memberships.

Members of Miss I. Smith's class gave a program of music and dancing, and the girls' glee club sang.

The Sew and Sew club will meet at 10:30 p. m. Thursday, June 23, at the home of Mrs. Mary Jacobi, Peoria street.

Last Friday afternoon, two additional afternoon whists for the life-membership fund were held at the homes of Mrs. Marie Gehrig and Mrs. Otha Kinsey, both of Irvington street. Prizes left over from the other two whists were used. These whists contributed a substantial amount toward a third life-membership which Crocker hopes to increase before the end of the new term.

Sponsored by Crocker P. T. A., a party for the graduating class was given at the Embassador Skating Rink Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Aileen Lehigh, Mrs. Lillian Cavagnaro and Mrs. Mildred Seiler chaperoned the group.

The ring given by Crocker P. T. A. for high scholarship w a s awarded Alfred Greig. Mrs. Mildred Seiler, president, made the presentation.

Chrysler Dealer Says Business Tone Is Improving

Business sentiment has shown an improved tone in recent weeks, due to lessened tension in the international situation, said A. L. Timossi, local Chrysler-Plymouth dealer, here, yesterday.

Timossi, manager of Mission Auto company, pointed out that an increasing number of encouraging business and industrial signs were noticeable in California and in the balance of the nation.

"Conditions abroad seem to have settled to such a degree that American business is no longer holding a gloomy outlook for the future," declared Timossi. "Both truck and rail freight loadings are running far ahead of last year, in some cases more than 50 per cent.

"The automobile business h a s always been a barometer of general conditions and up until the end of April, figures show that sales reached 845,855 cars, a gain of 236,617 over the same period of 1938. This means a 38.83 per cent gain for the entire industry. Chrysler sales, however, have far exceeded that figure because of the unusual public acceptance Chrysler has enjoyed this year. Retail sales of Chrysler products have shown a gain of 65 per cent as against a general industry increase of only 38 per cent."

"Our organization," Timossi said, "is looking forward to a steady demand for Chryslers and Plymouths throughout June, July and August. We have just placed additional orders at the factory to be shipped during those months."

"Shelter Cove And The Clipper Ship"

by Tom Wiedemann

When 'long the Coast you take a trip,
Don't overlook the "Clipper Ship,"
For there you'll find much treasure trove,
At a snug place called "Shelter Cove."

Off Pedro Point, 'midst massive rocks,
A sheltered beach there interlocks,
There finest fishing can be found,
Where gentle swells the rocks do pound.

For swimming there's the place to go,
No danger of an under tow,
For boating it is not too rough—
The Cove is sheltered by a bluff.

For you who plan a picnic day,
At Shelter Cove's the place to stay,
Neat tables where you all can sit
While meat is simmering in a pit.

Your car too is right within reach,
For you can park it by the beach,
And if refreshments you would sip,
Just go aboard the "Clipper Ship."

There drinks are served at a fair cost,
George Lewis is the genial host,
His greeting, sincere all the while,
Is topped off with a pleasant smile.

As hostess, Mrs. Lewis too,
Adds pleasure to the "Clipper" crew,
And then to add more to your joy,
You'll find they have a strapping boy.

There also you will find a show,
With relics of the long ago,
Bits of fine ships that are no more,
The wreckage floating to the shore.

Fine clipper ships are pictured all,
In neat array around the wall,
And from the deep sea-treasure trove,
Has found its way to Shelter Cove.

If on vacation you would go,
You'll find neat cabins in a row,
Then too, at Shelter Cove you'll find,
The patrons are the proper kind.

If you enjoy the brisk sea air,
At Shelter Cove you'll find it there,
And as a climax to your trip,
Meet Lewis on his "Clipper Ship."

"Story of Alexander Graham Bell" Is America's Most Thrilling Saga

Don Ameche, Loretta Young and Henry Fonda Cast in Stirring Romance

Out of the stirring past of this great nation emerges a drama of accomplishment that symbolizes the tradition of America—the story of Alexander Graham Bell, inventor of the telephone. His is the dramatic romance of one who dreamed and struggled, loved and achieved. Simple, human and inspiring, the magnificent motion picture coming Thursday to the Daly City theatre pays homage to his genius and to a woman's devotion. Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Story of Alexander Graham Bell," a Cosmopolitan production for Twentieth Century-Fox, with Don Ameche (in the title role), Loretta Young and Henry Fonda sharing stellar honors, tells with power, with humor and with profound humanity the drama of a great man and the love that inspired him.

Bell's is a story that belongs to America—the obscure young scientist, his discouraging struggles, his invention of the telephone, his desperate battle against public ridicule and powerful opponents, his ultimate triumph, the flame of his genius kept alight by the love and faith of the woman he adored.

Companion Feature

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle's "The Hound of the Baskervilles," one of literature's most spine-tingling, suspense-taut mystery stories and the greatest of all of Sherlock Holmes' astounding adventures, is the companion feature with Richard Greene, Basil Rathbone (as Holmes) and Wendy Barrie.

Don Ameche, as the inventor of the telephone, and Loretta Young as the lovely girl who inspired him, in Darryl F. Zanuck's production of "The Story of Alexander Graham Bell," coming Thursday to the Daly City theatre. Henry Fonda also shares top billing.

One of the first members of the fire department, Koss belonged to Company No. 1, and was the first fire commissioner elected from that company. He was also one of the earliest members of the local order of Eagles. Since 1917 he had made his home in Santa Cruz.

Barbara and Richard McDonough, Winchester street, left yesterday morning for Guernewood Park, where they will spend the vacation with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Lombardi. Their mother, Mrs. Helen McDonough, will join them the latter part of the month.
